

WELCOME

Home to Auburn University, the city of Auburn offers many of the amenities of a larger city while maintaining a small town feel.

The city of Auburn was founded in 1836. The city is known as being one of the more progressive cities in the south with a nationally ranked public school system and a diverse population. Auburn University creates a significant international presence for the community with 2,235 international students and 500 international employees. Many other foreign nationals live and work in the community, and it is estimated that two of three residents are from other parts of the country creating a cosmopolitan feel.

Jordan-Hare Stadium, home to the Auburn University's football team, is the nation's 10th largest on-campus football stadium with a seating capacity of 87,451.

Auburn University's presence makes the town quite different from most small cities. A sense of community pride is created from The University as citizens and local alumni proudly identify themselves as being from the city of Auburn, home of Auburn University (AU). As a member of one of the nation's top athletic conferences (SEC), The University hosts major sporting events year-round. These events continue to generate a tremendous amount of excitement and entertainment for area residents. Auburn University offers many other activities of interest as well including art shows, theatre, speakers, and concerts.

Downtown is the heart of Auburn, located adjacent to the University's main campus.

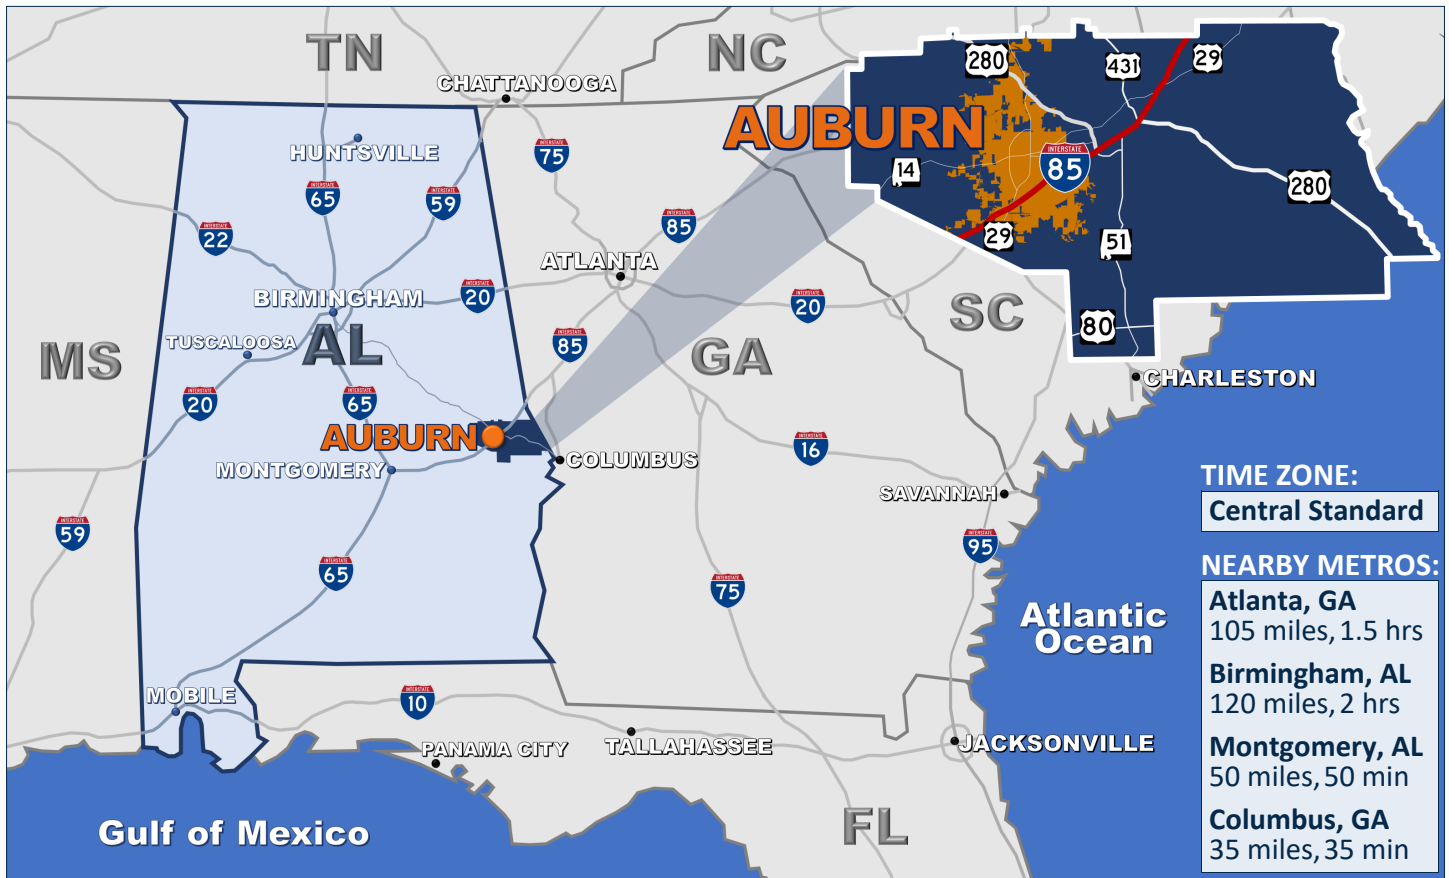

Downtown Auburn is lively with thriving retail that includes unique shops, fine and casual dining, quaint coffee shops, bookstores, banks, and nightlife. Toomer's Corner, an Auburn tradition since the late 1800s, is the focal point of downtown. Toomer's Corner is known as the gateway from the Auburn community to Auburn University. The Tiger Trail of downtown honors the greatest athletes, coaches and administrators from Auburn University. Each inductee is presented with a granite plaque placed in the sidewalk of downtown.

COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT

A positive business environment, a viable workforce, a fantastic education system and a high quality of life have all fueled Auburn’s economy and growth over the years. Driven by continued population growth in East Alabama, rapidly expanding tourism and travel marketing, Auburn continues to experience steady commercial growth.

The downtown area continues to attract new unique retailers and restaurants. The exit 57 area at Bent Creek Road area has expanded to accommodate Sam’s Club, Academy Sports, and several restaurants and retailers. The Shoppes at the Heart of Auburn on South College Street opened in 2014 including a CVS Pharmacy as the anchor tenant along with other restaurants and retailers. Two Publix shopping centers (Hamilton Place and Shoppes at Cary Creek) opened within the last five years. These developments include adjacent retailers and restaurants as well. The Auburn Mall, anchored by Belk, Dillard’s, and Stein Mart, offers 524,097 square feet of retail shopping and dining. The Auburn Mall is home to more than 60 specialty retailers, located at the intersection of E. University Drive and Opelika Road. The West Pace Village development off exit 51/S. College St. will continue to develop. Two new hotels and three auto dealerships are the development’s current tenants. Two new Walmart Neighborhood Market stores opened as over the last few years to serve the community. Lastly, the Flint’s Crossing and Market Square Shopping Centers completed major renovations for more attractive locations to shop and dine.
